

Freshfields

Campos Frescos (Hispanic and Latin American) Employee Resource Group

Campos Frescos, the Hispanic and Latin American Group, is one of our many amazing Employee Resource Groups at Freshfields. It is a great place to connect with other colleagues who share similar interests and to create a sense of belonging at the firm. Campos Frescos strategically aligns with our Diversity and Inclusion (D&I) priorities which can be found in the D&I section of our website.

“Diversity is a fact. Inclusion is an act.’ Through Campos Frescos we share the values, traditions and experiences tied to our Hispanic and Latino roots to promote inclusion by embracing the diversity of our members.”

JOIN US

Hispanic and Latin American Employee
Resource Group

Events

- Wine Tasting event with Hispanics in Wine
 - Campos Frescos and Domaine Freshfields, the Firm’s wine appreciation group, hosted a festive wine tasting event with Hispanics in Wine. Hispanics in Wine is a non-profit organization providing educational and career-advancement opportunities to the Hispanic and Latino community of beverage professionals in the United States and worldwide.
- Live Conversation with a Pulitzer Prize-winning Journalist
 - In collaboration with the Pro Bono Committee, we welcomed the Maria Hinojosa into the NY office, the trailblazing and Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist who has reported for more than three decades on immigration, marginalized communities, and social justice issues in the United States.

