

Jan Brinkmann

Partner

Tax

Technically great and absolutely reliable

————— Chambers Europe 2015

Primary practice

Tax

About Jan Brinkmann

Jan is a partner of our tax practice. He deals with complex domestic and international tax issues with a particular focus on financial institutions.

His practice comprises the tax structuring of corporate reorganisations, particularly in the banking sector, M&As, fund structuring, asset finance, transfer pricing for financial services and VAT.

Jan is often recommended for financial institutions tax advice and has built long-term relationships with many foreign banks in Germany.

Jan regularly publishes and lectures on tax law.

He speaks German and English.

Recent work

- Goldman Sachs on various aspects of its German business
- J.P. Morgan on the transfer of business and cross border mergers in the context of Brexit
- Swiss Gategroup on the acquisition of the European business of LSG Sky Chefs from Lufthansa
- ING Group/ING DiBa on various German tax aspects of their domestic and international business
- SEB on the sale of its German asset management division to Savills
- Deutschen Pfandbriefbank on current tax issues
- Various financial institutions and corporates in tax litigation matters (including representing them before the Federal Fiscal Court)

Qualifications

Education

- College of Fiscal Affairs, Nordkirchen, Germany (diploma in tax law (Dipl-Finw))

- University of Konstanz, Germany (law; doctorate in law (Dr jur))
- University of Oxford, UK (master's degree in law (M Jur))

Professional qualifications

- Rechtsanwalt, Germany
- Steuerberater (tax adviser), Germany

Contact Jan

jan.brinkmann@freshfields.com

Frankfurt am Main

Bockenheimer Anlage 44

60322 Frankfurt am Main

T +49 69 27 30 80

F +49 69 23 26 64